

Caitlin McNamara

I am a licensed social worker and have been working in the field for the past 13 years. I have primarily worked in county based social services including child protection, foster care licensing, and home and community-based services. In my free time, I enjoy playing sand volleyball, exploring new restaurants, and watching my kid's theater plays and sports. We also love fishing, board games, and traveling!

