

Elise Ferrarese

I have been a Support Planner with AB&B Services since 2016. Graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in Psychology and have over 20 years of experience working in the health and human service field includes; assistance in special education classes, job coaching for adults with development disabilities, PCA work, working for a Fiscal Support Entity for over 6 years, and I have extensive knowledge of Consumer Directed Community Supports. When I'm not working, I enjoy spending time with my family and gardening.
