

Lindsey Stevens

I have been a Support Planner with AB&B Services since July 2017. I graduated from Winona State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administrations. I personally have years of experience using Consumer Directed Community Supports with my son, Jackson. I am very passionate about helping individuals and their families navigate the supports that are available to them. When I am not working, I enjoy spending time with my family, reading and traveling.

